CULTURAL_EXCURSIONS

The first traces of human activity in the area date back more than 10 thousand years. Since then, the Atacama Desert has continued to be a hub of human interaction, a commercial crossroads for Andean peoples and a proud cradle of Ancient cultural heritage. These tours offer guests the opportunity to explore the legacy left by indigenous populations, from the Lican Antai, to the Tiwanaku peoples, and later the Inca. This is a chance to understand the heritage of these local hosts a little better.

VALLEY OF THE MOON

This tour allows guests to enter a sanctuary of nature and geology. The Valley of the Moon is a spectacular geological formation created through the conflicting pressures of the Andes and the Cordillera de Domeyko. As one of the most breathtaking and iconic views in the entire region, travellers from all over the world migrate here to enjoy the sun setting over the Valley.

What to bring: | Distance covered: 25 km / 15,53 mi

ATACAMA SALT FLAT AND TOCONAO VILLAGE

This varied tour starts with a visit to Toconao, a local village known for its masonry and architecture which is typical of the area, as well as its important agricultural heritage. Next, we continue to Tamarugos forest, a woodland region en route to the National Reserve of Los Flamencos, one of the most iconic and memorable spots to enjoy the renowned sunsets of the Desert.

* Includes aperitif.

Duration: Half day | Difficulty: Easy | Altitude: 2,300 m

TATIO GEYSERS

“Grandpa crying” is the local name used to describe the Tatio Geysers, a geothermal field sitting at 4,321 meters above sea level.

You will explore the Geysers, which consist of large pools of boiling water and mud, fumaroles, and natural hot springs. This is also a good chance to appreciate the unique flora and fauna adapted to flourish in this extreme environment.

On return, you will pass through Machuca, a traditional village previously used by local shepherds.

* Includes lunch.

Altitude: 4,321 m | Acclimatization: 2 days

What to bring: | Distance covered: 100 km / 62,13 mi

THE SALT LAKES

The tour of Ojos del Salar takes us to two incredibly deep freshwater pools which emerge unannounced from the arid desert plains. This trip is noteworthy for its conclusion on the banks the Turquoise Lagoon of Tebinquinche; we will arrive just in time for sunset. Tebinquinche is known as a unique location to experience the pallet of colours associated with Andean volcanic waters and surrounding mountains as the sun sets and the light morphs across the ever-changing landscape.

ANDEAN LAGOONS

This excursion will take guests through the southwest region of San Pedro. The first stop will be at a crossroads with the old Inca Trail, the main way that linked this powerful empire from Ecuador to Chile. The tour continues to Socaire, a local village known for its traditional church and historical terraced plantations of quinoa and purple potatoes. Next, on to the high Andean Lagoons of Miscanti and Miñiques. Formed as a result of ancient ice thaws, these crystal waters provide a sanctuary to observe the immensity of the mountains. The region is also a showpiece for the unique flora and fauna adapted to these high altitude conditions.

EXCURSIONS_ASTRONOMICAL

The skies of the Atacama Desert are a window to the universe. Recognize worldwide as one of the best for the practice of astronomy, here the night gives way to an intense show of lights and shapes whose tracks lead to the stellar times where it all began. The experience of connecting with the universe through the skies of Atacama is a true spectacle of discovery and wonder.

ANDEAN ASTRONOMY

To make the most of our privileged position in the desert, we have installed the only open air observatory in the region. It sits atop one of the many hills near the hotel. There, eight swivel chairs and a powerful telescope will enable guests to take in the intricacies of our universe with real clarity while here. You will also have the knowledge of one of our expert guides to answer questions and give information on the long history of human astronomical discoveries.

Our adventure tours will offer guests just that - an adventure!
This range of walking and biking excursions allow the force of the desert to be revealed with the natural energy it deserves.

THE COLORADOS (*)

This route crosses one of the most important ancient thoroughfares used by local shepherds thousands of years ago. Next, you will pass through the daunting tunnel formerly used to connect San Pedro with Calama. The walk continues along the cliffs of the Cordillera de la Sal, the perfect place to observe the Catarpe Valley, the oasis of San Pedro, the Salar de Atacama, the Andes, the Cordillera de Domeyko, and even Nayara Alto Atacama itself! Finally, on the way back, we will cross a path which rolls down in the middle of high dunes, a well known feature of Mars Valley.

DEVIL'S THROAT

RECOMMENDED

This varied hike takes in a mix of both intriguing archaeological history and captivating landscapes, carved out predominantly by the ferocious flood waters of the Vilama and San Pedro Rivers over many millennia. Starting at the Vilama sulphur mine, the route then follows in the footsteps of local shepherds of times gone by, until reaching the ancient petroglyphs of Lican Antai, a real-life history lesson and glimpse of the past. Finally, it is onward to the ominously named Devil's Throat Canyon, which offers sublime views across the Cordillera de la Sal.

CKARI GORGE

The ever-majestic Cordillera de la Sal never fails to entice and excite, with jagged caverns, steep cliffs and narrow passes in fine display at Quebrada de Kari. Walking first across open, expanding plains, which lead into tight passageways and formidable mineral mountains, the hike to Quebrada de Kari offers a beautiful insight into the historical geological processes which have shaped these lands. We are also taken into one of the rare habitats frequented by high-altitude birds, which enjoy the protection offered by high salt concentrations in the rocks during cold winter nights.
